At Last--Hollywood Riviera Gets Sewers

By MARY and JACK WEBB

Oh, Happy Sewers! We've got news for all you fellow cesspool sufferers. Sewer plans for Riviera District No. 1 are just about complete, we learned this week. At the last Homeowners meeting, President W. A. Garabrant announced there is now only one hold-out on the easements necessary to put the sewers in and we are hoping that by the time you read this, the hold-out will have joined our side. We couldn't count on all fingers and toes the numbers of families who are having cesspool and septic troubles and will bless the day that our sewer system becomes operative.

Incidentally, we'll report too that there are just about enough signatures on the petitions now to have District No. 2 in line for its sewer system. District No. 2, as you know, is roughly Lower Riviera while District No. 1 are Upper and Mid-Riviera. We understand that you District No. 1 Rivierans can expect your sewers by the end of summer if all goes according to present plans.

nounces the association, will be Tuesday, March 2, at Redondo High School.

And over at 251 Calle de Andalucia, Mrs. James Jones-entained friends at a "Chinese Luncheon" on Jan. 28. Guests included Mesdames Emil Huskamp, James Byrd and Rockwell Robb, and Mr. John Cunningham.

Word comes that the city is now contemplating the development and paving of Fatos Verdes Blvd. between Monte de Oro and the Pacific Coast Hwy. It's part of an effort to provide a through route to Torrance proper.

Down at the South Bay Christian School, 24 schoolmates and friends of Butch Byrd helped him fete his fifth birthday with a party last Monday. So report Mr. and Mrs. Jim Byrd, 224 Calle de Andalucia. Butch's proud parents had been so busy with the party included cupcakes with individual candles, ice cream and punch, and all 24 partymakers seemed well satisfied and satiated with the celebration. Mrs. Byrd and teacher Miss Marie Joyce planned and supervised the birthday spurge for Butch.

Mrs. Louis Regan, 265 Vista del Parque, is recovering from an attack of strep throat. Having had it once, we sympathize 100 per cent. It's been years, but we can still remember that even a glass of milk felt like liquid glass going down our throats.

Miss Vecinas plans a gala affair on Thursday, Feb. 25, 8½ to be an evening meeting for members and their husbands only, publicity chairman Mrs. Louis Regan reports, and it'll be a dinner party with a Western theme. The place will be the Redondo Woman's Club, the time will be announced later.

And thanks to Mrs. Donald Beaver, 221 Via Los Miradores, for her very kind letter of recent date. We enjoyed it very much and want to say hello to you and your wife. Mr. Beaver, newcomers to Riviera. We appreciate your note, for it makes us feel that we are accomplishing what we set out to do, namely, to bring all Rivierans a little closer together. In answer to your letter, we'll make a bit on the Mothers March just about three weeks ago. We agree it's a wonderful project for a very worthwhile cause, and we too can't resist a request for a donation to help in their drive. Write us as soon, or better still, give us a phone call some evening. We welcome suggestions and comments anytime.

World crises may come and go, nations may rise or tumble—but young couples get married anyway. This has been happening for thousands of years, and this month it's going to happen in Riviera. Diane Wilke, 20-year-old daughter of Ralph Wilke, 200 Calle de Madrid, announces Feb. 26 as the date for her marriage to Marvin R. Bank of Glendon, Panama. It'll be at Wayfarers Chapel on Portuguese Bend way, and after the ceremony the young couple will be off to Davisville, R. I., where he will be stationed at the Seabee base. Oh yes, Marvin is a Navy Seabee, and I might add they met when he was stationed at Port Huene, Calif., and she was attending Santa Barbara College last year. She tells us they'll live in Rhode Island for a few months, then he'll be off to North Africa for a six-month tour of duty, after which his release from the Navy is due. She'll stay in Philadelphia with her mother till his return.

Members of El Camino's Gamma Phi Delta Sorority gathered at the home of Miss Ann Flanagan, 212 Paseo de las Delicias, last Tuesday for a surprise party in honor of Midge Kuhn, who left the El Camino sorority for UCLA. Among the ROUND RIVIERA GAL 22222 forty Gammans who attended were Rivierans Margo Strobel and Lois Jones.

A total of $16,215 is needed to continue the West Basin barrier until June 30 when Water Conservation Zone II, established by the Board of Supervisors, goes into effect, according to West Basin spokesman Carl Fossett.

The Ralph W. Fritchard Committee to solicit contributions to continue the barrier has received $8870 in donations from responsible agencies in the West Basin and $19,913 from special assessments, leaving $16,215 to be obtained.

The Board of Directors of the West Basin Water Association will hold its regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 25, at the Palms Verdes Country Club. Paul Baumann, assistant chief engineer of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District, will discuss the current status of the West Basin barrier operation and Water Conservation Zone II.

And to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crisfield, 352 Via Colusa, last Monday, Feb. 1, was born a daughter, Leslie Ann, who weighed into this world at 7 lbs., 14 oz. The birth also took place at San Pedro Community Hospital, with Dr. George M. Kiebler attending. This makes the Crisfield clan a foursome, what with Robin, 11½ months, waiting home to greet her mother and new sister.

Puppets To Tell Gospel Stories

Jack Thompson, the story-teller, will bring his helpers to the Harbor City Revival Tabernacle, Normandie at 286th St., next Sunday, Feb. 24.

Rev. Thompson will use two puppets, named Joey Simpleton and The Professor, to tell Gospel stories as well as sing. The talking dummy, Johnny, is a great delight to the children. Grow-ups like him, too.

The programs will be held Monday through Friday from 4 to 5 p.m.

Rev. Fred Martin, pastor, states that Rev. Thompson will also teach a Sunday School Workers' Training Course at 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.
